EXTENDED SUMMARY

Ann Oldfather is the principal of OLDFATHER LAW FIRM, a firm concentrating in plaintiffs’ litigation. Ann has practiced law for over 35 years, after graduating magna cum laude from the Brandeis School of Law at the University of Louisville. Ann has been sole trial counsel in a number of hotly disputed and significant cases, including the sexual abuse strip-search litigation against McDonald’s Corporation resulting in a record setting Bullitt County verdict of $6.1 Million, commercial litigation between Carrier Vibrating Equipment Company and Rexnord International dealing with loss of corporate goodwill and resulting in a plaintiff’s verdict of $12.5 million, and medical malpractice litigation for a young man from Somerset, KY, with a missed diagnosis of a metabolic disorder where a rural Kentucky jury returned a verdict of $5.5 million. Ann was one of the lead plaintiffs’ counsel in the Carrollton, Kentucky bus crash disaster in which 27 children and adults burned to death in a school bus designed and manufactured by Ford Motor Company. Ann served as one of the Class Counsel for the settlement class of 243 victims of sexual abuse in their recovery against the Archdiocese of Louisville of $25.7 million. Ann has tried many complex, multi-party cases as lead or sole trial counsel. She was appointed as the head of one of only six trial counsel committees approved by the Federal District Court in the Ford/Firestone multi district litigation. Ann has been listed in the BEST LAWYERS IN AMERICA since 1994, and is now listed in seven separate categories, the highest number of individual listings in Kentucky in this prestigious publication. Ann was the highest vote-getter overall in Kentucky Super Lawyers 2010 survey, and she was second highest vote-getter overall from 2007 through 2009. She has been listed one of its Top Ten attorneys since inception of the publication. She has received the prestigious “A-V” listing from Martindale Hubbell continuously since the mid 1980s, and is featured in their BAR REGISTER OF PREEMINENT ATTORNEYS. She is a Board Certified Civil Trial Advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. Ann has served as a Special Justice on the Kentucky Supreme Court, authoring both majority and dissenting opinions. Ann has lectured as a speaker at numerous programs, including presentations at the annual convention of the American Association for Justice and at Kentucky’s Annual Judicial College. Ann has served as an advocacy instructor at the University of Louisville, and she is the author of the “Juries” chapter of the KENTUCKY CIVIL PRACTICE HANDBOOK. Ann is a member and past-Board member of the Kentucky Association for Justice, a member of the American Association for Justice, and a member and 1998 and 1999 President of the Kentucky Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates. She was the recipient of the 1997 Alumni Fellow Award from the Brandeis School of Law of the University of Louisville. Ann was inducted in the International Academy of Trial Attorneys in April, 2004. One of Ann’s proudest achievements was receipt of the 2001 Peter Perlman Trial Lawyer of the Year award from the Kentucky Association for Justice.
